

09:15-10:00 – INTRODUCTIONS

The day opens with interventions from high profile speakers setting the scene of the conference background and the programme comprehensive approach.

- Jean-Luc Moner-Banet, President, World Lottery Association
The long standing relationship between sport and the lotteries
- Pascal Boniface, Founder and Director, Institut de Relations Internationales et Stratégiques
Sport Integrity in the “Global Village”
- Paquerette Girard-Zappelli, Chief Ethics & Compliance Officer, International Olympic Committee

SPORT INTEGRITY AND FIGHTING MATCHFIXING: THEORIES, REALITIES, STAKEHOLDERS

Moderated by Harri Syväsalmi, Director of the Finnish Centre for Integrity in Sports

Sport is an unlimited source of inspiration, self-development and social cohesion. Promoting and defending sport integrity is essential to preserve this unique potential. With the internationalisation of sport and in the wake of globalisation trends, sport integrity is increasingly at risk, which is reflected notably looking at the multiplication of match fixing cases conveying transnational schemes.

10:00-11:00 – The state of action: sport integrity is a multifaceted notion

What are we talking about when using the semantic and rhetoric of sport integrity? What are the sport ethical challenges at stake and ahead? Experts and practitioners address the definition and scope of sport integrity and how it endorses particularly sports betting corruption.

- Jean-Loup Chappelet, Professor, IDHEAP, University of Lausanne
- Keith Gilbert, Professor, University of Rome
- Pim Verschuuren, Research Fellow, Institut de Relations Internationales et Stratégiques

11:00-11:30: COFFEE BREAK

11:30-13:00– The state of play: the international sport institutions’ map and roadmap

From stakes to stakeholders, where does international cooperation stand in the overall fight against match manipulation?

- Ingrid Beutler, Integrity manager, International Olympic Committee
- Julien Zylberstein, Senior Legal Counsel, Public Affairs and EU Law, UEFA
- George Paterson, Policy Officer, European Commission, DG EAC
- Cassandra Fernandes, Senior Project Officer, Sport Division, Council of Europe

FOCUS: Perspectives for Macolins’ convention to fight competition manipulation at national and international levels —

Examples of national platforms:

- France – Thierry Pujol, FDJ
- Italy - Paolo Bertaccini Bonoli, Professor/Researcher, Catholic University of Milan
- Netherlands – Walter de Beauvesier Watson, Nederlandseloterij
- Norway - Torbjørn Almlid, Norsk Tipping

13:00-14:30: BREAK – LUNCH AND NETWORK

MODERN SPORTS BETTING: REALITIES, RISKS, RESPONSABILITIES

Moderated by Sarah Lacarrière, Secretary General, GLMS

With the development of online technologies since the turn of the century, sport betting online and in real time has become such a mainstream. Nowadays, one can bet from anywhere around the planet on any competition, fed with information on the game development in real time (even when no images are associated). Modern sport betting has brought many new possibilities, yet high associated integrity threats.

14:30-15:30: Looking at facts: a journey into stories under media spotlight in the past years

Interventions focus on cases occurred in various sports and around the world to bring contextual elements to the afternoon discussion.

- The story of Wilson Raj Perumal – Chris Eaton, Sport Integrity Consultant
- The Calcioscommesse case (football) – Daniela Giuffré, Head of Integrity in Sport Unit, Interpol
- The KS Skenderbeu club case – Emilio Garcia, Head of Disciplinary and Integrity, UEFA

15:30-16:15: What those cases and other say - Trends, figures, mainstream

Speakers present their takeaways from the exposed cases, each in their field of expertise (e.g. betting markets and regulation, investigation, prosecution, etc.)

- Kevin Carpenter, Lawyer & Consultant, Captivate Legal & Sports Solutions
- Pierre Cornu, Judge at the Court of Appeals, Neuchâtel, Switzerland
- Pierre Charles Pradier, Associate Professor, Sorbonne University

16:15-16:45: COFFEE BREAK

16:45-17:45: Responsibility of the betting industry towards sports

Indicatives topics: Mapping of the 21st century sports betting industry; Responsible approaches and differentiation between players; Capacity building in sports organisations; The use and impact of monitoring systems. Etc.

- Madalina Diaconu, Associate Professor at the University of Neuchâtel
- Valerie Peano, Institutional Affairs, Sisal S.p.A
- Chin Siong Seah, CEO of Singapore Pools and GLMS President
- Julie Norris, Head of FIFA EWS

17:45–18:00 - CLOSING & TAKEAWAYS

- Andy Miah, Chair in Science Communication and Future Media, University of Glasgow
Highlights of the day and takeaways
- Torbjørn Almlid and Walter de Beauvesier Watson, European Lotteries
The way forward to remain the main supporter of sport and driving force for integrity